GAME DAY INFORMATION

TV COVERAGE

This game is being televised regionally on the Lincoln Financial Sports/Raycom ACC network. Steve Martin (play-by-play), Rick "Doc" Walker (analyst) and Scott Pryzwansky (sidelines) call the action.

RADIO COVERAGE

All Virginia games are broadcast on the Virginia Sports Network, originating at WINA/WWV in Charlottesville. Mac McDonald calls the play-by-play. He is joined in the broadcast booth by former Cavalier great Frank Quayle, the 1968 ACC Player of the Year. Former UVa quarterback Tim Sherman reports from the sidelines.

112TH RENEWAL OF THE SOUTH'S OLDEST RIVALRY

Virginia returns to the road this weekend to face North Carolina in another ACC Coastal Division match-up.

The Cavaliers opened their ACC schedule last week with a 24-13 win over Duke. North Carolina is coming off a tough 34-31 loss to East Carolina on a last-second field goal. The Tar Heels are playing their ACC opener this week.

Virginia is looking to improve to 2-0 in the ACC for the first time since 2004. However, the road has not been kind to the Cavaliers recently. They have lost four straight road games and 10 of the last 12 going back to the 2005 season.

THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW

- This is the 112th meeting of the South's Oldest Rivalry
- This is only the second match-up in ACC history featuring ex-NFL head coaches.
- Virginia has won 16 of the last 22 meetings vs. the Tar Heels
- Virginia is looking to win its ACC road opener for the first time since 2003
- Since 1996 Virginia has scored 21 rushing TDs vs. five for the Tar Heels

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Players are available each Tuesday following Coach Groh's press conference until 1:45 p.m. This is the best opportunity to interview players. If you have specific player interview requests, they should be directed to Andy Fledderjohann in the UVa Athletics Media Relations office by Noon Monday.

No player interviews will be arranged after Wednesday during game week.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Virginia's locker room is closed to media following games, both at home and on the road.

Coach Groh will hold his post-game press conference in the media room, while requested players will be brought to the media room to meet with media representatives after Groh. UVa athletics media relations personnel will take player requests during the fourth quarter of each game.

THE SERIES VS. THE TAR HEELS

- North Carolina holds a 56-51-4 advantage in the all-time series that dates back two centuries to 1892. You may notice a difference in the series record between the two schools due to the game in 1956 that North Carolina forfeited for using an ineligible player.
- Overall the Cavaliers have won four of the last five meetings (and seven of last nine).
- Virginia won last season 23-0, its first shut-out of the Tar Heels in 82 years (7-0 UVa in 1924)
- Virginia is trying to win two in a row for the first time since 2002-04
- The Tar Heels hold a decided advantage in Chapel Hill as indicated by their 29-10-3 record.
- UNC has not won in Charlottesville since 1981; in that time the Cavaliers have won four times in Chapel Hill.
- The border rivalry is the most played series in the South.
- The two teams have played each other every year they have fielded a team since 1910. (Neither school had a football team in 1917-18 due to World War I.)
- Since 1982, Virginia is 17-7-1 vs. the Tar Heels.
- The Cavaliers have faced the Tar Heels more times (111 games) than any other school (next is Virginia Tech at 88 games).
- Virginia head coach Al Groh was the line-backers coach at UNC from 1973-77, where he coached Lawrence Taylor, among others.

THE MOST OFFENSE WINS

- One of the factors that can be used to predict a winner of this game is looking at the team with the most rushing yards and the most total offense.
- Since 1940 the winning team has out-rushed the loser 52 of 64 times, with one game featuring the same yardage for both.
- Similarly the winning team has had more offense 54 times and been outgained just 11 times since 1940. The loser has out-gained the winner just four times since 1975, but two occurrences have come in the last seven years. [In both instances above the 1956 (forfeit) and 1984 (tie) games aren't included.]

THE SOUTH'S OLDEST RIVALRY

- This is the 112th meeting in the long history of the Virginia-North Carolina series, the South's Oldest Rivalry.
- The rivalry is tied for the fifth longest in Football Bowl Subdivision history and was the seventh series in NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision history to reach 100 meetings with the 1995 game.
- The two schools have met every season since 1919 and there have been only four seasons since 1900 when they didn't meet (1906, 1909 and 1917-18, when football was postponed at both schools due to World War I).

The longest series in FBS history

CAVALIERS HOLD UNC OFFENSE IN CHECK

- Virginia has won 16 of the last 22 contests against North Carolina
- One of the keys to UVa's success has been an ability to keep the Tar Heel offense in check
- Since 1979, North Carolina has scored more than 27 points just twice (1997, 2001). In contrast, the Tar Heels topped 27 points seven times between 1970-78.
- Also since 1979, the Tar Heels have managed to score more than three touchdowns only twice (when they scored six in 1997 and four in 2002), while Virginia has done so three of the last five years.
- North Carolina's rushing offense is another telltale sign of predicting a winner. The Tar Heels have averaged 238.8 yards in their last six wins dating back to 1983 but have averaged just 126.1 yards in their 17 losses since then (a tie in 1984 is not included).
- The Virginia defense has been even better against the run since 1993, holding the Tar Heels to an average of 118.4 yards rushing per game, while winning 10 of the last 14 meetings.
- Since 1996, UNC has scored just five rushing touchdowns with two coming in 1997. In contrast, Virginia has scored 21 times on the ground since then.

- In the last 11 games, UNC's offense has scored 18 touchdowns, with nine coming in two games (1997, 2002), while the defense has scored five touchdowns (all on interceptions).

TURNOVERS ALSO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

- Coaches often cite turnovers as one of the keys to a team's success in any particular game.
- And the rivalry between Virginia and North Carolina is a good example of this coaching philosophy.
- Since 1982, the Cavaliers are 12-2-1 (.833) when committing fewer turnovers than the Tar Heels. (The losses occurred in 1995 and 2001, while the tie was in '84.)
- On the other hand, North Carolina is 4-2 (.667) when committing fewer turnovers
- There have been four games since 1982 where each team committed the same number of miscues and Virginia has won three (1985, '88, 2003).

FORMER NFL HEAD COACHES MEET

- This is only the second match-up in ACC history featuring head coaches who have also been head coaches in the NFL.
- Virginia's Al Groh was the New York Jets head coach in 2000, while Tar Heel head man Butch Davis coached the Cleveland Browns from 2001-04
- Curiously this is the first of three consecutive games pitting former NFL head coaches
- After North Carolina, Virginia hosts Georgia Tech, coached by Chan Gailey, and Pittsburgh, coached by Dave Wannstedt
- The Groh-Gailey match-up is the first in ACC history with two former NFL head coaches going up against each other
- Overall, this is one of 10 college games this season pitting former NFL coaches against each other; currently there are 12 former NFL head coaches who are Football Bowl Subdivision head coaches.
- Several other ACC head coaches served as head coaches in the NFL after stints in the ACC, including Lou Holtz, John Mackovic, Bobby Ross and Steve Spurrier.

BOUNCE BACK WINS

- Following the season-opening loss to Wyoming, Virginia has lost four season openers under Al Groh
- The Cavaliers have bounced back to win the following week three times (2001, '06, '07), including this past week against Duke

- The Cavaliers have also lost eight games by 20 or more points under Groh since 2002
- They have bounced back to win the following game on seven occasions since then

BIG PLAYS RETURN

- Virginia has already gotten bigger plays in two games from offense and special teams than last season
- Andrew Pearman returned a kickoff 67 yards vs. Wyoming, UVA's longest return in two years
- Vic Hall had a 67-yard punt return last week to set up UVA's first TD vs. Duke, the team's longest in three years

EIGHTEEN RETURNING STARTERS

- Virginia features 18 returning starters this season, eight on offense, 10 on defense
- Both kicking specialists also return
- Only two schools have more returning starters: UCLA-20, Utah St.-19
- This is UVA's most returning starters since the 1989 team also had 18. That squad won the school's first ACC championship.
- The eight returnees on offense are Virginia's most since 2003 (9).
- Virginia is one of nine schools to return as many as 10 defensive starters. Utah State returns all 11. Virginia ranked 17th in the country in total defense last season.
- This is the first time since 1977 Virginia has returned as many as 10 defensive starters.

FIVE CAVALIERS COMPETE AS GRAD STUDENTS

- Five Cavaliers have already received their undergraduate degrees and will be participating as graduate students this season.
- The list of grad students and their undergraduate degrees include:
 - NT Allen Billyk (economics)
 - G Ian-Yates Cunningham (psychology)
 - LB Jermaine Dias (sociology)
 - C Jordy Lipsey (sociology)
 - G Gordie Sammis (government)
- UVA has had 104 players play as grad students in the past 18 seasons.
- Only six schools have more players playing as grad students that Virginia

THREE WALK-ONS IN STARTING LINE-UP

- With three walk-on players in the starting line-up this season, it will be the first time in 10 years so many have started for UVA
- In 1997, DE Patrick Kerney, WR Bryan Owen, and CB/S Stephen Phelan started six games together.
- Only five schools have more starters who came as walk-ons that UVA. Florida International leads the way with five in its starting line-up, while Central Michigan, Colorado, Florida Atlantic and Utah all have four.

WALK-ON SUCCESS

- The starting line-up features three players who joined the program as walk-ons.
- ILB Jon Copper
- S Byron Glaspy
- WR Staton Jobe
- Copper was an undersized high schooler in Roanoke, Va., who spent a post grad year at nearby Fork Union Military Academy. He redshirted his freshman year (2004) and played mostly special teams the following season. Last year he worked his way into the starting line-up and was the leading tackler
- Glaspy stepped out of the student body and joined the team during the spring of 2005. He moved into the starting line-up for the final four games that season
- Jobe camped at UVa while in high school. A sprint champ in high school in Austin, Texas, he redshirted last fall, but moved into the receiver spot vacated following the injury to Kevin Ogletree.

OTHER UVA WALK-ONS

- Virginia has had remarkable success with walk-ons through the years
- Al Groh, a walk-on himself at UVa, says his philosophy is to play the players who give the team the best chance to win
- Notable former UVa walk-ons include:
 - all-time leading scorer PK Connor Hughes
 - NFL Pro Bowler DE Patrick Kerney
 - NFL 1000-yard WR Patrick Jeffers
 - Academic All-American DB Stephen Phelan
 - Two-year starting FB Kase Luzar
 - Current ST standout Josh Zidenberg

FOUR TRUE FROSH SEE THE FIELD

- Head coach Al Groh has not been afraid to play true freshmen at UVa.
- 53 players have played as true freshmen under Groh, including 24 on this year's roster
- NT Nate Collins was the only true freshman to play last season. The rest of his recruiting class was redshirted.
- In the opener vs. Wyoming, LS Danny Aiken, WR Dontrelle Inman and QB Peter Lalich played
- Lalich got in for the final series to become the first true freshman QB to play for UVa since Dan Ellis in 1997
- CB Ras-I Dowling joined this list after seeing plenty of special teams action vs. Duke last week

OFFENSIVE LINE RETURNS INTACT

- Virginia is one of the few teams that return all five offensive line starters from a year ago.
- This is the first time this has happened for the Cavaliers since 2004.
- That season UVa led the ACC in rushing with an average of 242.8 yards, an improvement of more than 112 yards per game.
- LG Branden Albert, a preseason All-ACC choice, shares the team lead with 24 career starts
- Two members of the O-Line have already earned their degrees: RG Ian-Yates Cunningham and C Jordy Lipsey
- LT Eugene Monroe was the top line recruit in the country in 2005
- RT Will Barker was a second-team Freshman All-American last year

SEWELL SETS ROOKIE RECORDS

- Jameel Sewell started the final nine games last season as a redshirt freshman and set virtually every UVa passing record for a freshman
- He finished 11th in passing efficiency in the ACC
- Believed to be only the third left-handed QB in school history (Jimmy Lesane 1949-51, Whitey Clarke 1954-56)
- Was team's second-leading rusher last year with 200 yards and four touchdowns
- Among the freshman records he set last season are:

Yards passing	1342
Touchdown passes	5
Attempts	247
Completions	143
Completion %	57.9
Total offense yards	1542
Yards passing in a game	243
Yards of total offense in a game	335
Completions in a game	23

LALICH LEADS LONG DRIVE

- Peter Lalich has appeared in both games this season
- Is the first true freshman to play QB at UVa since Dan Ellis in 1997
- Led team in passing vs. Duke with 131 yards, the sixth-highest total by a true freshman in school history
- Also tossed a 4-yard scoring pass to Tom Santi to cap a 15-play, 82-yard drive in the fourth quarter for UVa's final touchdown

TIGHT END U

- UVa can easily be called "Tight End U" under head coach Al Groh
- Seniors Tom Santi and Jonathan Stupar, and junior John Phillips form one of best units in country
- Redshirt freshman Joe Torchia is also an excellent prospect
- Pittsburgh Steeler standout Heath Miller won John Mackey Trophy in 2004 as nation's top TE
- Santi's 69 career receptions lead team, rank seventh by a TE in school history
- Stupar 46 receptions are second on team, 15th all-time by UVa TE
- Phillips has been primarily a blocker but is likely to be more involved in passing game
- UVa TE have caught 330 passes for 3796 yards and 32 TDs since 2001, by far the best figures in the ACC in that time

PEERMAN POSTS FIRST 100-YARD GAME

- Junior Cedric Peerman won the starting tailback job with an impressive preseason
- After leading the team in rushing vs. Wyoming with a very modest 18 yards, he exploded for a career-high 137 yards vs. Duke
- His 137 yards are the most by a UVa player since 2004 (Alvin Pearman 147 vs. Virginia Tech)
- He scored on a 58-yard run in the first quarter for UVa's longest running play since Michael Johnson bolted 70 yards for a touchdown against Syracuse in 2005
- After rushing for 153 yards last season, he already has 155 after two games this fall
- He is the team's leading active rusher with 545 yards in his career
- Ran indoor and outdoor track (sprints, relays) with the UVa track team

BAD KARMA AT WIDE RECEIVER

- Virginia has been unlucky regarding its leading wide receiver each of the last two years.
- Last season Deyon Williams was coming off a 58-catch season, but he injured his foot during training camp and was never the same
- This year's leading returning receiver, Kevin Ogletree, injured his knee in the spring
- He had surgery, but has not returned to action

COVINGTON SET TO STEP UP

- Junior Maurice Covington looks to be the wide receiver most likely to make up for the catches lost due to Kevin Ogletree's injury
- Will use his 6-4 frame to get separation
- Led the team with four receptions vs. Wyoming
- 16 career receptions are tops among team's active WR
- Six receptions for 45 yards in '06 are most among WR on roster (since Andrew Pearman is now at TB)

NEW PRODUCERS AT WIDE RECEIVER

- Two freshmen saw quite a bit of action at wide receiver in the first game against Wyoming
- Redshirt freshman Staton Jobe started for the first time in his career, while Dontrelle Inman was one of three true freshmen to play for the Cavaliers
- Jobe led the team with 27 receiving yards on just two catches
- His 17-yard catch was UVa's longest of the game
- Inman also caught two passes for a total of 21 yards
- He had a nice 14-yard play that he nearly broke for a very long gain

1-2 TACKLERS RETURN

- ILB Jon Copper led the team in tackles last season with 81, while fellow ILB Antonio Appleby was second with 68
- Copper led the squad in tackling a team-leading six times, while Appleby was high man twice
- Both players started all 12 games a year ago during their sophomore seasons
- Copper had a big offseason following the marriage to his wife, Holly
- He received the Speed Elliott Award as the team's most improved player last season
- Appleby also improved from last season and was named the team's Rock Weir Award winner as the most improved player in the spring

LONG SECOND IN NATION IN SACKS

- Senior defensive end Chris Long has been named to a host of preseason All-America lists
- One of three returning starters on d-line
- Team captain for second consecutive year
- On watch lists for several prestigious awards, including the Bednarik Award (nation's best defensive player), the Nagurski Award (outstanding defensive player) and the Ted Hendricks Award (defensive end of the year)
- Fourth among ACC defensive linemen in tackling last year with an average of 4.8 tpg
- Averaging 7.5 tackles per game this season
- Finished with seven tackles, including two sacks, against Wyoming
- Had six QB hurries vs. the Cowboys, the second-highest total of his career
- Shared team lead with eight tackles vs. Duke
- Had two sacks for the second game in a row
- Currently second in the country in sacks (2.0/g)
- Leads Cavaliers with 123 career tackles, 29 TFL, 11 QBS
- 56 quarterback hurries in last three seasons

36 & 36

- Head coach Al Groh has set a goal this season of 36 sacks and 36 turnovers by the defense this season (avg. three per game)
- Reaching those goals on a consistent basis should make for a very successful season if history is any indication.
- The Cavaliers had four sacks vs. Wyoming
- Defense followed that with five sacks vs. Duke, its most in nine games dating back to last season
- Under Groh, Virginia is 23-6 (.793) when recording at least three sacks and 18-5 (.783) when forcing at least three turnovers
- The Cavaliers have won 19 of their last 22 games when dropping the quarterback three times and 16 of their 17 when getting at least three takeaways.

BILLYK MANS THE MIDDLE

- Senior nose tackle Allen Billyk was one of the team's most improved players in training camp according to head coach Al Groh
- After playing last season on bad ankles, he's been healthy this season
- Tied his career high with six tackles against Wyoming
- Followed that with five tackles vs. Duke last week
- 11 tackles in the last two games is the best two-game stretch of his career
- Tied for second among ACC DT/NTs in tackling with an average of 5.5 tpg

FITZGERALD WREAKS HAVOC

- Jeffrey Fitzgerald blossomed last year as a redshirt freshman playing opposite Chris Long at defensive end
- Unanimous freshman All-American
- Averaged 5.3 tackles per game, top in nation among freshmen linemen
- Six sacks set UVa rookie record and ranked third in the country for freshmen
- 64 tackles were tops among UVa linemen
- Seven tackles and an interception against Wyoming
- Shared the team lead with Chris Long with eight tackles vs. Duke to tie his career high
- Three career interceptions are tied with Nate Lyles for the most on the team

SINTIM RETURNS IN TOP SHAPE

- Junior OLB Clint Sintim reported to training camp in the best shape of his life according to him
- Following a stellar rookie campaign in 2005, he was hindered by a shoulder injury last fall and had offseason surgery to correct the problem
- Was not a full go in the spring as a result
- Made a career-high 10 tackles vs. Wyoming
- Currently second on team behind Chris Long in career tackles (111), TFLs (22) and sacks (8)

UVa Active Tackle Leaders (100+)

COOK HAS STAR POTENTIAL

- Junior Chris Cook is attempting to become the first UVa CB to earn first-team All-ACC honors since Ronde Barber did it three times from 1994-96
- At 6-2, 201, he has the size to be an exceptional cornerback and is a vastly underrated performer
- Led the secondary with 58 tackles last year
- Led team with 11 tackles, including five solos, vs. Wyoming
- Is the team's leading tackler this season with an average of 8.5 tackles per game
- Second in tackling among ACC CBs behind Virginia Tech's Brandon Flowers and ranks tied for 10th overall

VIC HALL GETS FIRST START

- Sophomore CB Vic Hall was one of the most dynamic quarterbacks during his high school career
- When he got to UVa he was moved to cornerback since the program was well-stocked with QBs
- Was expected to battle Mike Brown for the starting nod at cornerback, but a summer knee injury knocked Brown out of action
- Standout special teams performer who shared team lead with Brown with seven punt coverage tackles
- Made four tackles vs. Wyoming
- Followed that with a career-high five stops vs. Duke
- Got UVa off to a fast start on special teams vs. the Blue Devils
- Returned a punt 67 yards on the first touch of his career early in the game to set up UVa's first touchdown
- Finished with 80 punt returns yards, the most by a Cavalier in three years

GOULD SWITCHES APPROACH

- Placekicker Chris Gould has worked hard since last season on improving his accuracy to better his 11 of 19 performance of 2006
- He switched from a three-step to a two-step approach to help him, which is paying off according to Al Groh
- Made his first attempt from 42 yards vs. Wyoming
- It is his longest FG in five games since two 43-yarders vs. North Carolina last October

- 12th on UVa's all-time field goals list with 13
- Needs six field goals to tie Joe Jenkins and Billy Maxwell for 10th on UVa's field goals list
- Attended the Super Bowl last February to see his brother, Robbie, kick for the Chicago Bears

WEIGAND HAS RECORD-SETTING DAY

- Much was made about the effect of altitude on the players in the game at Wyoming
- One player who benefited from the circumstance was senior punter Ryan Weigand
- He punted nine times for a 51.6-yard average and set a school record for best single-game average
- The previous record was 50.4 yards by Joel Dempsey against Wake Forest in 1986
- Weigand also set a school record for most punting yards in a game with 464, breaking Russ Henderson's record of 449 in 1977
- Weigand boomed six punts of at least 50 yards to become the first Cavalier punter to have so many in one game
- After the game Weigand admitted he felt the altitude added 5-7 yards per kick, but his last two (57, 61 yards) were into the wind
- Weigand leads the ACC and is second in the country in punting with a 50.2-yard average

PEARMAN BREAKS A LONG RETURN

- Andrew Pearman had a big game in the kick return department vs. Wyoming
- He returned three kickoffs for a 37.7-yard average
- His longest return of 67 yards in the third quarter is UVa's longest since Michael Johnson had a 68-yarder vs. Duke in 2005
- He is currently ranked 24th in the country in kickoff returns with a 28.4-yard average
- After moving from wide receiver to tailback in training camp, Pearman also rushed twice for three yards in his first action in the backfield
